Walk this way. I grew up, like so many of my fellow boomers, in fear of turning into my parents. And like so many of us, I used that fear as motivation to eat better, exercise more, use sunscreen, and age as gracefully as possible. But long after my parents' generation passed the torch to us, I still feel that dread.

Walk with laughter not with dread. There'll be no defeat if you don't retreat. You'll be on your way to feeling you're complete. So stand up and be ready to win the fight. Rise up and see the real life that's in sight. Take one step at a time. It's your turn now to find. Your place in life, reserved with you in mind.
